Professional Summary

My focus is on helping leaders make changes that stick. I do this by leveraging the wisdom of my clients and their teams. Every intervention is custom designed and built on my 30+ years of experience as a successful Executive Coach, Leadership Consultant, Strategic Planning Coach, and Conflict Facilitator. I am consistently recognized for performance excellence, transformational results and contributing to the success of my clients. I am currently co-authoring a book tentatively titled Wisdom Leadership: The Psychology of Transformation.
